Our renewed effort to offer a contemporary and global education has been reaffirmed by strong and new partnerships, as well as a fresh blueprint for our curriculum and pedagogy.

To seed the curiosity towards the education and academics, JKLU has come up with a fresh blueprint of curriculum and pedagogy, giving students the opportunity to choose modular courses and the freedom to choose how they would like to spend the most valuable period of their lives. Seeing the world of business and jobs changing rapidly the University is initiating new ways of learning, as well as critical new skills to learn for students with an aim of providing Learning & Innovation at the intersection of design, engineering & management. Students here are inspired through diverse lectures by world-class visiting faculty and industry leaders including- Vikas Satwalekar Professor, Mentor and Ex-Director of NID Ahmedabad, Anil D Sahasrabudhe Chairman, All India Council For Technical Education (AICTE), Mrityunjay Athreya, Padma Bhushan amongst many from different walks of life and develop broad perspectives on issues that are important for the world.
