

JKLU STUDENTS TO FLY TO SILICON VALLEY

Two students – Sarthak Vijayvergia, in his final year of Computer Science Engineering, and Harshita Gupta, in her third year, Electronics & Communication Engineering from the JK Lakshmipat University, Jaipur – have been selected by the Department of Information Technology and Communication, Government of Rajasthan, to undergo a Rajasthan Student Start-up Programme in the Silicon Valley, USA.

