CONCLUSION

This report has taught me a lot about social media marketing and how to leverage the power of social media to enhance visibility and traffic for any business. After experimenting with various promotional tools and strategies, I have come to the conclusion that the company should concentrate on its primary source of brand promotion.

Communication is a crucial contributor to brand promotion, and it also aids consumer happiness by attracting and resolving client complaints. Social media networks such as Facebook, Twitter, LinkedIn, YouTube, and Instagram were primarily used to promote the CLEAR exam at the institution. This report, I believe, contains some surprising findings. Digital Marketing clearly has a wider reach than traditional marketing because it provides information to the target audience. It is also readily available as a result of technological advancements, which has boosted social media marketing.

RECOMMENDATIONS

CLEAR EXAM must prefer promotions through Social media instead of Traditional Promotion methods in order to achieve higher results. It must use paid promotional tools and techniques, which is more interactive and innovative to create a strong consumer base. It should target individuals rather than mass audience this would benefit the brand.

In order to eliminate communication gaps, appropriate synchronization is required. CLEAR EXAM can run proper campaigns to get more engagement from the users. Also, the Institute CLEAR EXAM can build a mobile friendly web page through which they achieve higher results.
