

Strathclyde Business School invites applications for scholarships for international students starting their studies in 2020. Candidates for all full-time MSc programmes in Glasgow will be automatically considered for these scholarships.

Number: Up to 40

Value: £7000

Eligibility: Awarded on merit, rather than financial need, to candidates who demonstrate in their masters programme application excellent academic performance (current and/or previously gained)

Any relevant extra-curricular or professional experience and career development and who will contribute to the overall academic, cultural and experiential profile of the programme cohort.

For more information: contact

sbs.admissions@strath.ac.uk

Application deadline: July 31, 2020.

Applications open for scholarships up to ₹20 lakh each for MS(Data Analytics and Computational Social Science), MS(Applied Economics), and Master of Public Policy programmes from UMass Amherst, a top-tier public university in the US.

Fifteen scholarships will be funded by UMass Amherst and LSEF in 2020, covering upto 50 per cent of the tuition and academic fees for the two-year programmes leading to a master's degree from UMass Amherst and up to three years of employment authorisation (OPT).

Students who have completed (or complete in 2020) at least a three-year UG degree from an accredited university in India are eligible to apply.

The selection will be based on applicants' academic record, letters of recommendation, statement of purpose and personal interview with UMass Amherst and LSEF.

The LSEF-UMass scholarships were first offered in 2018 by Lakshmipat Singhania Education Foundation (LSEF) and University of Massachusetts Amherst (UMass) to make high quality global education accessible to meritorious students from India

More information about the programme and application process is available on <https://www.lse.foundation/>.