

Two new courses by IIT Hyderabad

IIT Hyderabad will launch BTech (Engineering Mathematics) and BTech (Minor in Design) from the academic year 2017-18. These courses are being introduced following interest from students and employers. While BTech (Engineering Mathematics) will enable students pursue higher studies in maths, BTech (Minor in Design) will help develop their creative skills. The student intake will be between 15 and 20.