leges across the country.

The chief guest for the valedictory ceremony Padma Bhushan Prof. VS Vyas, former director IIM-A, Professor emeritus, Institute of Development Studies, Jaipur reiterated that it is the right time for India to grow as a lot of capabilities are hidden in the young population of the country. He also emphasized that skilling and employability of the youth needs to be the prime focus of the country.

Dr. RL Raina, vice chancellor, JKLU, Jaipur in his highly energetic and student centric address inspired the young minds to think innovatively, set perspectives right and stay focused. The guest of honor Dr. Debendra Kumar Das, professor - Economics, Bihar University mentioned the importance of nurturing young students for their professional growth. He emphasized that skilling is part of spiritual application of mind, as mind is the house of knowledge and conquering the mind is very important.

He further inspired the students to come up with new ideas and develop themselves towards becoming a global man with new vision, new insight and innovativeness. The conference was successfully coordinated by conference conveners Dr. Anvay Bhargava, Dr. Nidhi Vashishth, and Raj Kishore Kampa.
