

JK LAKSHMIPAT UNIVERSITY, JAIPUR

END TERM EXAMINATION (March 2022)
BTECH-I Semester

Time: 2 Hours
MM: 30 Marks

Course: Fundamentals of Communication
Course Code: CC1101

Learning outcomes:

1. Compose logical, lucid, concise, and grammatically correct paragraphs that include a clear topic sentence and provide specific supporting details.
2. Deliver effective oral presentations following appropriate kinesics and paralinguistic features.
3. Apply appropriate communication skills across settings, purposes, and audiences to avoid miscommunication.

Answer the following questions (60-80 words)

(5x2=10)

1. What role do facial expressions, gestures and pauses play in communication?
2. Do you prefer to communicate via email, phone or in-person? Why?

Answer the question (70 words)

(10 marks)

1. Can culture, gender, nationality or social class have an effect on communication? Illustrate.

Answer the question (150 words)

(10 marks)

1. The Constitution of India came into effect 72 years ago envisaging a liberal democracy in India, and has stood the test of time. The enactment of the Constitution was a culmination of three years of deliberations in the Constituent Assembly. These deliberations were recorded in 12 volumes and are referred by constitutional courts to navigate the murky waters of interpretation as well as studied by constitutional law scholars.

While the Constituent Assembly (CA) debates succinctly represent the idea of India and the path that the founding mothers (though only 15 in number) and fathers decided for this country, they are not meant to be read uncritically. The Assembly has been criticised for its elite composition and lack of representative character in terms of indirect election of the members. Yet, we bestow upon the CA sanctity and a presumption that it drafted the Constitution with absolute moral correctness.

Give your opinion on the above mentioned statement.